NEWSY GLEANINGS.

Richard Croker arrived in New York City, and was warmly welcomed by old friends.

Socialists express the belief that their party will succeed to the place held by the Democrats.

Cases of the foot and mouth cattle disease developing in children were reported at Danville, Pa.

United States Senator N. B. Scott and Henry Cassaway Davis, of West Virginia, visited William H. Taft at Hot Springs.

The New York State Agricultural Commissioner has not yet found the source of the foot and mouth disease among cattle.

President Francis T. Bowles, of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, said the present year looked bad for the shipyards.

Physicians declared the Park dairy in New York City would educate milk producers to giving a better quality to their customers.

President-elect Taft suggested that the tariff revision inquiry should be more active and thorough than the one now in progress.

W. C. Brown, vice-president of the New York Central, declared the railroads of the country had agreed on a three per cent. advance in freight rates.

The Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, at Washington, D. C., heard arguments for and against raising the tariff on lumber.

Protest was made in Washington, D. C., at the report on cholera conditions in Manila, upon the strength of which Rear-Admiral Sperry refused liberty to the men of the fleet.

Every one interested denied that he had received any part of the $50,000 said by a Berlin newspaper to have been paid for the suppression of the Century interview with the Kaiser.
